The Department of Applied Linguistics and TESOL, a division of the Faculty of Languages, is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Harshita A. Kulkarni as the new Associate Professor and Director of the Applied Linguistics and TESOL Program. Dr. Kulkarni received her Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics from the University of Toronto and completed her postdoctoral fellowship at the University of British Columbia. She has been a member of the Applied Linguistics and TESOL Program since 2012 and has been an active member of the faculty since 2015. She is currently teaching Applied Linguistics and TESOL courses and supervising graduate students. Her research interests include second language acquisition, bilingualism, and language policy. She is also interested in the role of language in social identity and community building. Dr. Kulkarni is a frequent speaker at international conferences and has published several articles in the field of Applied Linguistics and TESOL. She is also a member of the American Association of Applied Linguistics and the Canadian Association of Applied Linguistics. She is currently serving as the Vice-Chair of the Applied Linguistics and TESOL Program and is looking forward to continuing her work in this role.
